

Grassroots Fundraising Strategy Chart

Adapted by Mimi Ho from

"Choosing the Right Fundraising Strategy," by Kim Klein & Stephanie Roth

www.grassrootsfundraising.org

Strategies requiring some personal knowledge of the prospect by the solicitor

What it is	Percent of Response	Best Use	Comments
Personal face-to-face solicitation Meet with a prospective donor by pre-arranged appointment & ask for a contribution. Prospect has ABCs: Ability to give size you're asking for, Belief in your work & has Contact with the organization or person asking for money.	50% say yes Half will give less than the amount you asked for.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • To upgrade donors • To bring in large gifts from qualified prospects • To raise large amounts of money quickly 	Start with people you know, at whatever level is appropriate for them
Personal phone call Caller knows the prospect. Makes call & asks for contribution over the phone	15-20%	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • To upgrade donors, especially people at $50-250 level to higher gift • Work with thoughtful donors who can't be visited easily • Raise large amounts of money quickly 	If it is hard to get donors to agree to face-to-face meeting, might need to rely on phone.
Personal letter Key difference from direct mail: there is a relationship between the person writing and the prospect	10-20%	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Low-key way for board, staff, or volunteers to ask friends & colleagues for gifts • To get donors known to people in the organization to renew gift • Sometimes useful for upgrading 	Usually recommend more personal contact with donors either by phone or in a meeting after letter, but letter alone can also generate money.

Strategies not requiring personal knowledge of the prospect

What it is	Percent of Reponse	Best Use	Comments
Door-to-door Canvass Volunteers or paid canvassers go door-to-door in designated neighborhoods, asking them to become a member or to give a contribution.	15%	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> In combination with an organizing drive so people are asked to sign petition or express opinion as well as join the group and give money Gifts are often small and usually not repeated. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Solicitors usually don't know the people, so response may be low But a certain percentage will answer the door, so solicitors can engage face-to-face in deeper way than writing or phoning those people
Phone-a-thon Group of people are recruited (or hired) to come together over several evenings to call through a list of prospective donors that may be interested in the organization's work. (sometimes mailing list exchange)	5% 15% if current donors	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Reaching large numbers of people with a message they can respond to immediately Can raise a large number of small and medium-sized gifts quickly Works best when donations by credit card accepted 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Good initial training for volunteers in how to ask for money more personally
Direct Mail A letter (not personalized) is mailed out to a list of 200 or more people by bulk mail. The list is people who haven't given (or sometimes lapsed donors), but may be targeted to people who have shown some interest in your issue.	1% 10% if current donors	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Acquisition of new donors To reach people you have no other way to contact 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Direct mail can often cost more or as much as it brings in Best to first exhaust people through personal strategies

Special Event Gathers a group of people to do something fun, entertaining, and/or educational.	Varies by event	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • To strengthen current donor base • Raise money from sources you might not otherwise have access to, e.g., small businesses Good for other goals aside from strictly financial such as: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • To build sense of community in the organization • To introduce new people to your work • Gain publicity for your organization 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Most successful events combine strategies for acquisition, retention or upgrading of donors. • Very labor intensive, may not be best for small orgs. • House Parties are a good variation -- require less time, labor & raises money.
--	------------------------	--	---